

GO TO C. M. LATHAM'S
AND SEE HIS BEAUTIFUL DRESS GOODS
And Trimmings and Fur Cloaks.

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

DO NOT FAIL TO INSPECT
C. M. Latham's New Stock
OF GOODS.
Comprising Many Articles New to this City.

VOLUME XI.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KY., NOVEMBER 22, 1889.

NUMBER 94

PUBLISHED TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS,
BY
CHAS. M. MEACHAM.
THOS. E. HARTLEY, Business Manager.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One copy, one year, strictly cash to advance. Five copies, one year, $1.00.
Five copies, six months, $1.00.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and makes the best of all pastries, cakes and breads. Sold in all grocery stores. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 108 WALL ST. N. Y.

BUSINESS CARDS.
DR. J. A. SOUTHALL,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Office over First National Bank,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

Junius C. McDavitt,
DENTIST.
Office over Kelly's Jewelry Store,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

DR. F. M. STITES,
Office over Bank of Hopkinsville,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Telephone Residence and Office.

A. P. Campbell
DENTIST,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
OFFICE OVER A. SPENCER'S.
Office over M. F. Clark's.

W. W. CLARKE,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Main street, over Court Square.

Dr. Wm. M. Fuqua,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
Office over National Bank,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.

HENRY J. STITES,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
HOPKINSVILLE, KY.
Telephone No. 7.

J. LIEBER'S
TONSorial - PARLOR,
OVER HOOPER & BALLARD'S.
Shaving, Shampooing, Hair Cutting and Dressing, and all work in the line executed in the best of style. - Give me a call.
- Lieber.

PHOTOGRAPHS!
Before you have your picture taken come and see the character of my work. You will be satisfied that my pictures are equal to the best city work. Special attention given to making life-size portraits by the new process. Fine line of Picture Frames always on hand. - Give me a call.
- CLARENCE ANDERSON,
Main Street, Hopkinsville, Ky.

Road Carts! EVERYTHING
Ten per cent cheaper Buggies!
than anybody else.
Don't buy before getting our prices and catalogues.
THE GEO. W. STOKELL CO.,
Name this paper. - NASHVILLE, TENN.

SHERWOOD - HOUSE!
(Under New Management.)
T. C. BRIDWELL, PROP.
Large Sample Rooms. Free System Call Bells.
BATHS.
Special Rates by the Week.
- 1-107.
Corner 1st & Locust streets, Evansville, Ind.

PROGRESSIVE - BARBER - SHOP!
W. M. GRAY, PROPRIETOR.
North Street, nearly opposite the Post Office.
Shampooing, Hair Cutting, Shaving, Hair Dressing, Clean Shave. Everything new, neat and clean. Hair cutting, shampooing and shampooing done in the very latest style.
- 1-107.

First National Barber Shop
IRVIN YOUNG, Prop.
N. NINTH ST. NEAR MAIN.
SHAVING, SHAMPOOING,
HAIR-CUTTING
All kinds of hair dressing and shampooing. Most experienced. Nothing but clean towels used.

TO ADVERTISERS
A list of all newspapers printed in this city and county is given on page 1. All advertising matter should be sent to the publishers of the respective papers. The following are the names of the publishers of the newspapers in this city and county:
- 1-107.

BILL SNORT IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

How Harrison Received The News From Virginia—He Visits Mayor Grant and Talks About The World's Fair—A Visit to Grant's Tomb.

BY ALEX. E. SWEET IN TEXAS SPRINGS.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.
My DEAR JOHNNY—On election night, Harrison and myself sat up to receive the returns. Nothing quite so sad has ever occurred in Washington since the death of Sir John Moore.

I was detailed to receive the dispatches, and, as the Republican gains, and announce the good tidings to Harrison. Pretty soon it began to dawn on me that the devoted one who had just been elected President, was the man who had just been elected President.

"Another Democratic funeral, I suppose," said Harrison, rubbing his hands gleefully.
"There is no doubt about its being a funeral," but it is not precisely a funeral, but a funeral of a funeral, to the Harrison Republicans.

"Oh!" exclaimed the President.
"Man born of woman goeth forth in the morning, warbling like a lark, and when the returns are counted, and the undertaker hath already got him in his box. In other words, Mr. President, on election day the Republican candidate arranges himself in his winter pants for the time, but, lo! and behold, the Democratic wasp hath made his nest therein, and she prods him with a sting as long as a barber pole, and laughs him to scorn," said I, breaking it as gently as possible.

"Col. Snort, will you please drop metaphors, and let me know if Mahone is gaining ground?"
"Yes, Mahone is gaining ground—downward. He has aspired, conspired, and now he has expired." Then I read out the long list of the killed and wounded, and a few of the sickening details, whereupon, to use the language of Scripture, "King Belshazzar's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against the other, and he remembered the words of Snort the Prophet."—See Jeremiah xiv, 24th verse.

I might have prodded Harrison about how he had neglected to follow the Prophet's advice, but I didn't have the heart to do it, he made such a poor mouth. Bill Snort is not the man to throw red pepper in the eye of a potato, particularly when the potato is as small as one as Harrison is.

I write these lines from New York city, where I am visiting my friend, Mayor Grant. On entering his office I noticed that he looked sad.
"Well, I suppose you are for a Tammany man you don't look as happy as you ought," said I.

Col. Snort, did you ever get up World's Fair for New York city?
"I never have made a practice of it."

"Then don't talk, Snort!"
"Am I to understand that the rich people of New York refuse to 'ante up'?"

Yes, avarice plagues up their souls until they rest in their bodies like the pith in a goose-quill. Stinky! Why, some of them would carry a mosquito to a dentist and ask him how much he would give for its teeth. Col. Snort, there are some rich men in New York who are so comfoundedly stingy that if their neighbors were to give them a coat of fur and feathers they would try to pawn it. Like one of these pointer dogs, when they get on a scent they never let go of it. When one of these rich New Yorkers whangs a copper cent into the contribution box he leans back with a twenty dollar air of benevolence. The subscriptions to the $5,000,000 fund are pouring into the treasury at the rate of a dollar and a half a week. I expected it to pour in much faster, but between what we want and what we get there is a fearful chasm. The Alpine glacier that travels at the rate of two inches a year is a tobyoggal almost compared with the gait of the rich New Yorker on occasions like this. Confidentially, Snort, it galls me to represent such a little lot of millionaires. They are as immovable as a man painting a house by the day. They couldn't get out of the way of a lame horse striding still. Now I feel better."

Just as I got an excited man rushed into our presence waving a letter over his head and shouting, "Victory! Victory!" It was the chairman of the World's Fair finance committee, and somewhat of an enthusiast.

"Has another gentleman subscribed a dollar?" asked Grant, who was evidently poking fun at the chairman.
"Charlie Knickerbocker has plunked down two dollars!" shrieked the excited man.

"This is really great news, very likely the Vanderbilt, the Astor, Goulds, the Van Sleds, the Whites, the Doolittles and the rest of them will subscribe as liberally. Janitor, hang out the American flag! POUND the gawab and sound the loud tinbells, also the instruments of ten strings," and, poking me facetiously in the ribs, Mayor Grant invited me to take a ride.

"Where are we going, Mr. Mayor?"
"I want to show you Gen. Grant's tomb, Col. Snort."

While we were riding up Fifth Avenue I remarked:
"Joking aside, Mr. Mayor, opportunities are game birds, and if they are got at all they must be got on the wing."

"Yes, New York is a little slow, but remember the fable of the hare and the tortoise. New York is the tortoise, but it will get there first."

"Perhaps so, if the hare goes to sleep; but the Chicago hare is a Western jack-rabbit, that travels faster than a prepaid telegram and never sleeps during business hours. In the World's Fair race it's New York that does all the sleeping."

"Well, Col. Snort, I have great hopes that the rich men of New York will come to the rescue, sooner or later."

We soon arrived at the site of Grant's tomb, not far from which is a little shanty on which was a big sign, which was so suggestive of the prevailing New York public spirit that I made a copy of it.

A Great Sail SALE.

We propose to return thanks to our customers in a substantial way, after a marvelous season of business we feel like doing something handsome in return for such generous appreciation. With this object in view we begin a great

Thanksgiving Sale,

MONDAY, NOV. 25th,

To continue one week and will offer GREAT AND WONDERFUL BARGAINS that will amaze even those accustomed to our great offers. Don't miss this. See supplement of this issue for particulars.

BASSETT & CO.,

"Wrecker's of High Prices,"

sign, which was so suggestive of the prevailing New York public spirit that I made a copy of it.

WELCOME TO NEW YORK!!
"BITE ONE OF MY TEN-CENT PIECES BEFORE WEeping AT THE TOMB."

Mayor Grant, whom I suspected of having a private understanding with the proprietor of the pie foundry, wanted me to bite a ten-cent pie, but I didn't bite. I have been in New York before. In New York nobody is too proud to twist a "comical" out of a stranger who wants to make a purchase while in the city. Three cents out of every ten-cent pie is a pilgrim bite goes to the New Yorker who wears the pilgrim to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

I was much surprised at the vast number of contribution boxes in New York which strangers are expected to feed with a quarter for some worthy object. I stabbed the hole in a World's Fair contribution box at my hotel with a marked quill, and play my name to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

"No, I thank you, Mr. Landlord, I am not as entirely eaten up with morbid curiosity as you suppose, except the World's Fair fund and the Grant Monument fund."

From the very start, Johnny, New York has been deliciously enthusiastic in favor of getting the World's Fair, provided somebody else puts up the money. And New York still entertains that unselfish preference. Your friend, BILL SNORT.

PHILA., PA., March 4th, 1889
DR. KIRK:
Dear Doctor—I had a violent attack of gravel, afterwards had pains across small of my back, extending around my side; my stomach was disordered, bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated; was compelled to stop work for a few days. I took the Microbe Killer according to your directions, and was soon feeling all right again. We always keep a jug on hand to take when we get cold, or for any emergency.

Dr. P. Moore, (with B. Shoemaker.) For sale by Buckner Leavell, sole agent for Christian county.

Out of $4,000,000 consolidated bonds issued by President Ingalls for improvement purposes on the Chesapeake and Ohio, he has as yet used but $1,500,000. With this he bought 1,000 freight cars, sixteen vestibule passenger cars and thirty locomotives. New shops have been built at Clifton Forge, the shops at Richmond have been enlarged, ten miles of new siding, two branch lines leading to important coal mines, and large improvements to the track in the way of laying new steel and re-building bridges.—Louisville Courier Journal.

A Great Sail SALE.

We propose to return thanks to our customers in a substantial way, after a marvelous season of business we feel like doing something handsome in return for such generous appreciation. With this object in view we begin a great

Thanksgiving Sale,

MONDAY, NOV. 25th,

To continue one week and will offer GREAT AND WONDERFUL BARGAINS that will amaze even those accustomed to our great offers. Don't miss this. See supplement of this issue for particulars.

BASSETT & CO.,

"Wrecker's of High Prices,"

sign, which was so suggestive of the prevailing New York public spirit that I made a copy of it.

WELCOME TO NEW YORK!!
"BITE ONE OF MY TEN-CENT PIECES BEFORE WEeping AT THE TOMB."

Mayor Grant, whom I suspected of having a private understanding with the proprietor of the pie foundry, wanted me to bite a ten-cent pie, but I didn't bite. I have been in New York before. In New York nobody is too proud to twist a "comical" out of a stranger who wants to make a purchase while in the city. Three cents out of every ten-cent pie is a pilgrim bite goes to the New Yorker who wears the pilgrim to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

I was much surprised at the vast number of contribution boxes in New York which strangers are expected to feed with a quarter for some worthy object. I stabbed the hole in a World's Fair contribution box at my hotel with a marked quill, and play my name to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

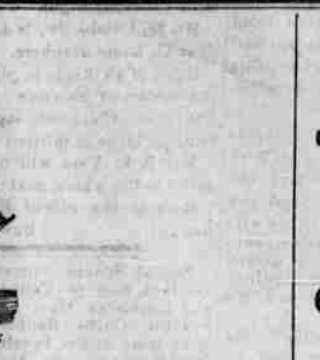

"No, I thank you, Mr. Landlord, I am not as entirely eaten up with morbid curiosity as you suppose, except the World's Fair fund and the Grant Monument fund."

From the very start, Johnny, New York has been deliciously enthusiastic in favor of getting the World's Fair, provided somebody else puts up the money. And New York still entertains that unselfish preference. Your friend, BILL SNORT.

PHILA., PA., March 4th, 1889
DR. KIRK:
Dear Doctor—I had a violent attack of gravel, afterwards had pains across small of my back, extending around my side; my stomach was disordered, bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated; was compelled to stop work for a few days. I took the Microbe Killer according to your directions, and was soon feeling all right again. We always keep a jug on hand to take when we get cold, or for any emergency.

Dr. P. Moore, (with B. Shoemaker.) For sale by Buckner Leavell, sole agent for Christian county.

Out of $4,000,000 consolidated bonds issued by President Ingalls for improvement purposes on the Chesapeake and Ohio, he has as yet used but $1,500,000. With this he bought 1,000 freight cars, sixteen vestibule passenger cars and thirty locomotives. New shops have been built at Clifton Forge, the shops at Richmond have been enlarged, ten miles of new siding, two branch lines leading to important coal mines, and large improvements to the track in the way of laying new steel and re-building bridges.—Louisville Courier Journal.

A Great Sail SALE.

We propose to return thanks to our customers in a substantial way, after a marvelous season of business we feel like doing something handsome in return for such generous appreciation. With this object in view we begin a great

Thanksgiving Sale,

MONDAY, NOV. 25th,

To continue one week and will offer GREAT AND WONDERFUL BARGAINS that will amaze even those accustomed to our great offers. Don't miss this. See supplement of this issue for particulars.

BASSETT & CO.,

"Wrecker's of High Prices,"

sign, which was so suggestive of the prevailing New York public spirit that I made a copy of it.

WELCOME TO NEW YORK!!
"BITE ONE OF MY TEN-CENT PIECES BEFORE WEeping AT THE TOMB."

Mayor Grant, whom I suspected of having a private understanding with the proprietor of the pie foundry, wanted me to bite a ten-cent pie, but I didn't bite. I have been in New York before. In New York nobody is too proud to twist a "comical" out of a stranger who wants to make a purchase while in the city. Three cents out of every ten-cent pie is a pilgrim bite goes to the New Yorker who wears the pilgrim to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

I was much surprised at the vast number of contribution boxes in New York which strangers are expected to feed with a quarter for some worthy object. I stabbed the hole in a World's Fair contribution box at my hotel with a marked quill, and play my name to the pie-maker's den, and so it is with everything else a stranger buys in New York.

"No, I thank you, Mr. Landlord, I am not as entirely eaten up with morbid curiosity as you suppose, except the World's Fair fund and the Grant Monument fund."

From the very start, Johnny, New York has been deliciously enthusiastic in favor of getting the World's Fair, provided somebody else puts up the money. And New York still entertains that unselfish preference. Your friend, BILL SNORT.

PHILA., PA., March 4th, 1889
DR. KIRK:
Dear Doctor—I had a violent attack of gravel, afterwards had pains across small of my back, extending around my side; my stomach was disordered, bad taste in my mouth, tongue coated; was compelled to stop work for a few days. I took the Microbe Killer according to your directions, and was soon feeling all right again. We always keep a jug on hand to take when we get cold, or for any emergency.

Dr. P. Moore, (with B. Shoemaker.) For sale by Buckner Leavell, sole agent for Christian county.

Out of $4,000,000 consolidated bonds issued by President Ingalls for improvement purposes on the Chesapeake and Ohio, he has as yet used but $1,500,000. With this he bought 1,000 freight cars, sixteen vestibule passenger cars and thirty locomotives. New shops have been built at Clifton Forge, the shops at Richmond have been enlarged, ten miles of new siding, two branch lines leading to important coal mines, and large improvements to the track in the way of laying new steel and re-building bridges.—Louisville Courier Journal.

A Wonderful Record

Since Sept. 15th we have bought over 1800 pairs of Anderson's "WEAR-FOR-EVER" SHOES and to-day we have only 200 pairs in the house. 1600 pairs in two months of one kind of shoe is truly a wonderful and unprecedented sale. And yet as wonderful as this sale has been, there is something more wonderful and interesting to the shoe buying public, in regard to this shoe. It has a history dating back ten years and sometime in the future we will give it to you, but at present we want to tell you that half of your shoe bill can be saved by having your family wear Anderson's "Wear-for-ever" Shoes. They are made for hard every day wear and will outwear two pairs of any other shoe of same weight and price.

The front lace in this shoe is $1.50 and the button $1.75. We have been unable to supply the demand on them, but will have 600 pairs in a few days and will promise to keep all sizes in stock from now on. Try one pair on our recommendation and if they don't give you satisfaction your money will be refunded.

Have just received a fine melton overcoat, silk-faced beautifully made, worth $15.00 that we are selling at $10.00. Cleaned up the lot and got them cheap.

Fine Natural Wool Underwear at $1.00 worth $1.50.

TERMS: Cash. One low price, marked in plain figures. No Deviation.
J. H. ANDERSON & CO.,
Nos. 1 and 3 Main St. Glass Corner.

★ RIGHT FROM THE EAST. ★

We are now receiving some large consignments of clothing from two of the largest manufacturing establishments in Philadelphia and Cincinnati, who found themselves overstocked with winter goods and desiring to unload, shipped us a large lot at a little above one-half their value, which fact enables us to retail these goods at such low prices and thereby give the benefit of some wonderful bargains to our customers. And we further state that we can

SELL GOODS AS CHEAP

As any house in the State of Kentucky, owing to the great advantages we have in buying, and another reason is that our expenses are less than any house doing the amount of business we do. Besides we are selling more clothing than any house in Southern Kentucky. Buying for three large stores gives us a big inside on prices.

We Buy for CASH and Sell for CASH,

11th enables us to get SPECIAL BARGAINS. We have suits made to order from the latest patterns of E. H. Worsted, Cavello, Trico, Repe, Diagonal, Astrians. Fits guaranteed and samples sent on application.

OUR BOOT AND SHOE TRADE

Is increasing every day. No old stock, but fresh goods direct from the factories.

An Elegant Line of Gents' Underwear, Hats and Furnishing Goods.

Call and examine our goods and get our prices and you will be astonished to know that goods are so low at

PYE, DICKEN & WALL'S.

STYLISH FURNITURE!

Renshaw & Brasher,
Main Street, FLY'S OLD STAND
HENRY BLOCK.
— KENT A FULL LINE OF —
ALL KINDS OF FURNITURE!
BEDSTEADS,
WARDROBES, ROCKING CHAIRS,
Complete Parlor, Chamber and Dining Sets

Everything Wanted by the House-keeper.
ALL THE VERY LATEST STYLES,
At the Very Lowest Prices!

UNDERTAKING

A SPECIALTY. A Complete line of Metallic and Wood Coffins and Caskets and Burial Robes. All Orders Promptly Attended to.
Dec. 4, 1889
Renshaw & Brasher.

Caldwell & Randle,

— MANUFACTURERS OF —
GALVANIZED IRON, CORNICE, WINDOW CAPS,
CRESTING, ROOFING, GUTTERING AND OUTSIDE WORK A SPECIALTY.
— AND DEALERS IN —
Tinware, Glassware, Queensware, Cutlery and Lamps.
Ninth St. Hopkinsville, Ky.

South Kentucky College,

HOPKINSVILLE, - - KENTUCKY.

A SCHOOL FOR BOTH SEXES.
40th Session will begin Tuesday, Sept. 3, '89.
This school offers first-class advantages in English, Science, Ancient Languages, French and German, Book-keeping, Music and Art. Terms moderate. For Catalogue giving full information, address JAMES E. SCORBY, President, or H. G. FLEMING.